Broadus was wanted by the Atlanta Police Department for a homicide which he allegedly committed on April 18, 2005 in southwest Atlanta. It is alleged that Broadus fired a handgun at another individual from the driver's seat of his vehicle as retaliation for a previous confrontation between the two. The victim was pronounced dead at the scene and several witnesses were later able to identify Broadus as the shooter from a photographic lineup. After the investigation was turned over to the SERFTF on April 22, 2005, leads were developed that placed Broadus in an apartment complex in the Smyrna area. On April 28, 2005, during surveillance, Broadus was seen exiting the unit and entering a vehicle. Additional units already en route to the location quickly fell in behind the subject's vehicle and a short rolling-surveillance ensued. When Broadus stopped at a red light, SERFTF investigators boxed him in and placed the subject under arrest without incident. In his possession at the time of arrest were a loaded .380 caliber handgun and a small quantity of marijuana. Broadus has approximately 12 prior arrests for offenses such as assault, burglary, weapons violations, and narcotics. 	  Joseph Broadus IV Wanted for Homicide

Capital Area Regional Fugitive Task Force
On March 14, 2005, Deondre Moore and Gerald Stokes abducted and attempted to rob a victim in Northeast Washington, D.C. Moore and Stokes drove the victim to the barber shop that the victim owned and stated that they would kill his daughter if he did not give them all of the money in the shop. Once at the shop, the victim attempted to run away, but was shot several times by Moore and Stokes, who then fled the scene. On March 15, 2005, a warrant was issued out of D.C. Superior Court, charging Moore and Stokes with kidnapping while armed. On March 16, 2005, the case was turned over to the Capital Area Regional Fugitive Task Force (CARFTF) for apprehension. On May 4, 2005, investigators located the suspects at an apartment in Capital Heights, Maryland. As investigators were making entry into the apartment Moore and Stokes barricaded the door and stated that they had a hostage and they were going to kill her. A five hour stand-off ensued, which resulted in the hostage being released, Deondre Moore surrendering, and Gerald Stokes killing himself with a single shot to the head. Moore is currently being held, without bond, at D.C. jail.	   Deondre Moore     Gerald Stokes   Wanted for Kidnapping While Armed

Pacific Southwest Regional Fugitive Task Force	“107th Street Hoover Crips” gang members
Michael Lamar Rose, Donald Ray Shorts, Jamar Lavon Tucker, and Mark Elise Williams, members of the “107th Street Hoover Crips” street gang, were wanted by the Redlands, California Police Department for homicide, attempted homicide, robbery, carjacking, and kidnapping for ransom, stemming from a carjacking of a victim in Los Angeles on April 23, 2005. The subjects forced the victim to drive to his home in Redlands where he lived with his mother. Upon arrival, the subjects robbed the victim’s mother’s house, during which they shot and killed a 28-year-old male and robbed, shot, and wounded the abductee’s mother. The subjects then took the victim from the residence, shot him, and dumped his body near a freeway in Fullerton, California. On April 24, 2005, the Redlands, California Police Department sought the assistance of the Pacific Southwest Regional Fugitive Task Force (PSWRFTF) in locating and apprehending Rose and Shorts, the only two known suspects at that time. PSWRFTF investigators, working closely with investigators from the USMS Technical Operations Group (TOG), the California Department of Corrections Law Enforcement &amp; Investigations Unit, the Los Angeles County Sheriff’s Department (LASD), and the Fullerton, Long Beach, Los Angeles, and Redlands Police Departments worked around the clock to locate the pair before they could commit additional crimes. On April 29, 2005, TOG provided information that the subjects had fled to the Las Vegas area. PSWRFTF and Redlands PD investigators immediately traveled to Las Vegas where they joined forces with the USMS Nevada Fugitive Investigative Strike Team and the Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department. After an intensive investigation, Shorts was arrested following a brief vehicle and foot pursuit. Rose was arrested a short time later in a nearby apartment. During the arrests, four firearms were recovered from the suspects. Investigators also developed information that identified Tucker and Williams as being involved in the crimes and PSWRFTF investigators, back in Los Angeles, in concert with LEIU, LASD, and Redlands PD investigators, established surveillances at multiple locations. On May 1, 2005, Tucker was located and taken into custody. A search warrant executed at the residence led to the recovery of items known to have been taken from the victims. On May 3, 2005, a surveillance team in Compton located and arrested Williams.	 Mark Williams  Michael Lemar Rose  Donald Shorts  Jamar Tucker Wanted for Homicide, Attempted Homicide, Robbery, Carjacking, and Kidnapping for Ransom
